U.S. Catholic Sisters Against

HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Resources for Wisconsin Parishes

Catholic Sisters throughout Wisconsin are working to eradicate modern slavery. As parishes implement anti-human trafficking efforts, this guide offers ideas and resources to build faith-based educational materials and events catered to your parish needs.

GET INVOLVED!

The Department of Living Justice provides prayer resources for the National Day of Prayer for survivors and victims of human trafficking. Visit www.gbdioc.org/living-justice/office-of-living-justice.html or contact dptlivingjustice@gbdioc.org or 920-272-8291.

5-stones is networking with organizations to end sex trafficking in Wisconsin. The non-profit's name comes from the Book of Samuel in which David selects 5 stones to slay Goliath. Email info@5-stones.org or visit Facebook and Twitter at "FightTheGiant."

Diocese of La Crosse

The La Crosse Task Force to Eradicate Modern Slavery, led by the Franciscan Sisters of Perpetual Adoration, the Diocese Office for Ministries & Social Concerns, and area professionals, works together to raise awareness and respond to victims in the La Crosse area. www.fspa.org/modernslavery Contact: Sister Marlene Weisenbeck, mweisenbeck@fspa.org.

Slaves No More is an online resource maintained by the Diocesan Office for Ministries & Social Concerns. www2.diolc.org/slavesnomore/ Contact: Lorraine J. Riedl, lriedl@diolc.org.

Project Respect provides services to underserved populations and survivors in Dane County and Northwest Wisconsin, including survivor training, short-term classes, emergency needs and more. Contact: Jan Miyasaki, Director, jan@respectmadison.com or visit Project Respect (Madison) on Facebook.

Wisconsin Anti Human Trafficking Consortium is a group of 120+ partner providers including government agencies (DHS, DCF, DOJ, FBI, DOC), law enforcement, service providers, advocates and faith-based organizations. Meets quarterly in Madison at the Wisconsin Coalition Against Sexual Assault headquarters. Contact: Nancy Irizarry, co-chair, Nancy.Irizarry@dhs.wisconsin.gov.

Archdiocese of Milwaukee

Three groups working to end slavery include:

Anti-Slavery/Justice, Peace, Integrity of Creation: contact Patrice Colletti, Sisters of the Divine Savior, collettip@salvatoriansisters.org.

Shalom - Justice, Peace, & Integrity of Creation, School Sisters of Notre Dame, Central Pacific Province: contact: Tim Dewane, tdewane@ssndcp.org or 262- 787-1023.

Franciscan Peacemakers: contact: Deacon Steve Przedpelski, przedpel@yahoo.com or visit www.franciscanpeacemakers.com/index.html

The education of adults about the sin of human trafficking flows from our responsibility to protect children and youth who are so easily victimized by traffickers. The faith formation curriculum is under the jurisdiction of Peggy Schoenfuss, the Director of Catholic Formation, 715-234-5044, pschoenfuss@catholicdos.org. Debra Lieberg, Chancellor, serves as liaison for the Diocese's Respect Life Office, 715-394-0240, dlieberg@catholicdos.org. This office aims to create a culture of life. Visit www.catholicdos.org/culture-of-life for more information.
