

Resources

Websites

www.captivedaughters.org/demand.htm

Articles taken from conference papers and specifically focusing on demand issues. This site includes an excellent resource page indexed according to countries and themes.

www.caase.org/research_on_demand.php

Website of the Chicago Alliance Against Sexual Exploitation contains papers by various researchers on the demand issue. Includes suggested best practices.

www.prostitutionresearch.com

Prostitution Research & Education non-profit corporation. which develops research and educational programs to document the experiences of people in prostitution.

www.catwinternational.org

The Coalition Against Trafficking in Women (CATW) works internationally to combat sexual exploitation in all its forms. Excellent articles on various aspects of working against human trafficking.

The following can be found on the CATW website:

Reports of the UN Special Rapporteur on trafficking in persons, especially women and children (2007)

Sigma Huda, Special Rapporteur (2006, 2007)

“Press for Change” – A guide for journalists reporting on the prostitution and trafficking of women

Julie Bindel (2006)

Primer on the Male Demand for Prostitution

Ilvi Jõe-Cannon, Editor, and the Coalition Against Trafficking in Women (2006)

The Links between Prostitution and Sex Trafficking: A Briefing Handbook

Grainne Healy & Monica O’Connor (2006)

Good Practices for Targeting the Demand for Prostitution and Trafficking

Coalition Against Trafficking in Women (Updated Jan. 2006)

Sex Trafficking is Not “Sex Work”

Janice G. Raymond

Demand and the Debate

Dorchen A. Leidholdt (2004)

The Swedish Law that Prohibits the Purchase of Sexual Services: Best Practices for Prevention of Prostitution and Trafficking in Human Beings

Gunilla Ekberg

www.coatnet.org

site of NETwork of Christian Organisations Against Trafficking in human beings, under umbrella of Caritas Europa. Links to European legislation in progress and what is going on in European Union as well as different European countries.

www.setallfree.net

Project established by Churches Together in England to commemorate the bicentenary of the Abolition of the Slave Trade in 2007. Promotes theological reflection. Good source for Bible studies, worship materials and ideas for school assemblies.

www.eaves4women.co.uk

The POPPY Project combines direct services, support and advocacy with research, development and lobbying. Has a list of FAQs on trafficking and prostitution in UK.

www.ecpat.net

ECPAT is an international network of organisations working together to eradicate child prostitution and pornography and the trafficking of children for sexual purposes.

www.humantrafficking.org

Brings government and NGOs in the East Asia and Pacific together in their efforts to combat human trafficking. This Web site has country-specific information including national laws and action plans and contact information on useful governmental agencies and NGOs.

www.slavebritain.org.uk

Powerful photographs and human interest stories of trafficking in Britain today.

www.unicef.org.uk

Short articles on child trafficking and good interactive map with individual stories, suitable for use with older children.

www.childtrafficking.org

Hosted by the Unicef Innocenti Research Center. Intended for international researchers, policy makers and operational personnel engaged in countering child trafficking activities. Particularly focused on Asia.

www.worldvision.org

Strong on child sex tourism prevention campaign, particularly from American angle.

www.afesip.org

AFESIP exists to combat trafficking in women and children for sex slavery; to care for and rehabilitate those rescued from sex slavery. Works in Cambodia, Thailand, Laos, and Vietnam.

www.caritas-europa.org

One of seven regions of Caritas Internationalis – a confederation of Catholic aid, development and social service organisations. Reports in different languages (English, French, Spanish, Italian, German) on migrants, trafficking and other issues.

www.chaste.org.uk

CHASTE (Churches Alert to Sex Trafficking Across Europe) works in Britain for the global eradication of trafficking for sexual exploitation.

www.crimereduction.gov.uk

Report from England provides a summary of the many responses to the public consultation paper Paying the Price and sets out the British government's proposals for a coordinated prostitution strategy.

Other Articles

Who pays for sex? You'd be surprised

More and more young men are choosing to visit prostitutes.

One writer asks them why

Clare Spurrell From The Times, newspaper, London Nov 7th 2006

Why British men are rapists

Joan Smith The New Statesman, London 23rd January 2006

Men create the demand; Women are the supply Lecture on sexual exploitation given at Queen Sofia Center, Valencia, Spain November 2000

Donna Hughes, University of Rhode Island

Available on www.uri.edu/artsci/wms/hughes/demand.htm

Prostitution: a contribution to the debate

Scottish Socialist Party women's Network

Available at

www.scottishsocialistparty.org/pdfs/pamphlet1_1final.pdf

A co-ordinated strategy for prostitution and a summary of responses to Paying the Price

The Home Office, London

Available at

www.homeoffice.gov.uk/documents/cons-paying-the-price/

Books

Ending Slavery: How We Free Today's Slaves.

Bales, Kevin. University of California Press, 2007.

Prostitution and Trafficking in Nevada: Making the Connections.

Farley, Melissa. Prostitution Research & Education, 2007.

Pornography: Driving the Demand in International Sex Trafficking.

Guinn, David (ed). Captive Daughters Media, 2007.

Getting Off: Pornography and the End of Masculinity.

Jensen, Robert. South End Press, 2007.

Pornography and Civil Rights: A New Day for Women's Equality.

MacKinnon, Catharine A.. Organizing Against Pornography, 1988.

Sexual Liberals and the Attack on Feminism.

Leidholdt, Dorchen and J. Raymond. New York: Pergamon Press, 1990.

www.unanima-international.org

UNANIMA International
211 East 43rd Street
Room 1207
New York
NY 10017 USA
Tel/Fax ++212-370-0075
email: fergcf@earthlink.net