

MISSION

UNANIMA International is a non-governmental organization (NGO) advocating on behalf of women and children (particularly those living in poverty), immigrants and refugees, and the environment. Our work takes place primarily at the United Nations headquarters in New York, where we and other members of civil society aim to educate and influence policymakers at the global level. In solidarity, we work for systemic change to achieve a more just world.

ACTING FOR WOMEN AND CHILDREN, MIGRANTS & REFUGEES, AND MOTHER EARTH

Founded in 2002, UNANIMA International brings the feminine spirit to the United Nations. Our name merges three concepts: anima, a feminine life principle of healing, caring, and nurturing; UN, as we do our work at the United Nations; we are unanimous, working together with one mind, heart, and spirit.
